PEOPLE WILL TALK.
You'll get through the world but 'twill be very slow.
If you listen to all that is said as you go; You'll be worried and fretted, and kept in a stew. For meddlesome tongues must have something to do—
And people will talk.

If quiet and modest, you'll have it presumed. That your humble position is only assumed. You're a wolf in sheep's clothing, or else you're a fool; But don't get excited—keep perfectly cool—
For people will talk.

And then if you show the least boldness of heart, Or a slight inclination to take your own part, They will call you an upstart, conceited and vain. But keep straight ahead—don't stop to explain—
For people will talk.

If threadbare your dress and old-fashioned your hat— Some one will surely take notice of that. And hint rather strong that you can't pay your way;
But don't get excited whatever they say—
For people will talk.

If your dress is in fashion, don't think to escape, For they criticize then in a different shape— You're ahead of your means, or your tailor's unpaid; But mind your own business, there's naught to be made—
For people will talk.

Now the best way to do is to do as you please, For your mind, if you have one, will then be at ease.
Of course, you will meet with all sorts of abuse; But don't think to stop them—it's not any use—
For people will talk.

The defunct Morehead and J. West Liberty Railroad was sold at Morehead Monday by a Commissioner of the Federal Court under a decree granted by Judge Cochran, and was purchased by the Morehead and North Fork Railroad Company of Clearfield, Pa. The price paid was $30,000, equal to cash, the upset figure placed upon the property when the decree of sale was granted.

The Portsmouth Blade says quite a sensation occurred in colored circles there Sunday when it was learned that George Anderson and Mrs. Maggie Black left the city simultaneously for Maysville. Their sudden disappearance gave rise to the report that they had eloped and it was confirmed Monday by relatives of both parties. Anderson is married, and Mrs. Black left four children, who are being cared for by relatives.

Beautiful Beechwood.

"Good!" "Better than last week!" "The best yet," were some of the expressions heard as to the excellence of the show on this week, as the big audience passed out of the Casino at Beautiful Beechwood last night, and the pa-trons certainly havé no reason to complain, for each one of the three acts are "top liners" and in no way conflict with each other. The show starts tonight at 8 o'clock on account of the Casino being given over to the "Dancers" from 9 to 12, and we would suggest that you go out early and enjoy Beechwood's natural beauties and the good vaudeville show.

CAN IT BE TRUE?

Said That Curt Jett Tells About Murders in Breathitt

A dispatch from Cynthiana says it is confirmed that Curtis Jett has made a full confession re-garding feud assassinations in Breathitt county, with which he has been charged.

He discusses many crimes which have become of National interest.

It is stated that he admits having killed At-torney J. B. Marcum, whose widow has never ceased to seek vengeance, and also admits that he killed Tom Cockrell.

He implicates three well-known men in the murder of Dr. Cox and others, but says that ex-Senator Alex. Hargis had no connection with the crimes.

MAYSVILLE-ON-THE-OHIO, nestling in a valley as picturesque as the most favored of the Hudson or the Rhine, is an ideal spot for those who desire a home in the midst of scenic beauty unsurpassed in all the world.

It is the capital of Mason county, located in the famous Bluegrass Region, where the farms are highly productive of all the staples, while it is the home of the celebrated White Burley Tobacco, and the center of the District which alone produces it. The city has right now a population of 10,000, and the number is increasing every few days. There are good schools, public and private; Churches of all denominations; the finest system of water-works in the United States—with three active distilleries to forestall a possible famine. We have an electric street railway, gas and electric lights; manufacturing industries so diversified that "dull times" have comparatively little effect; telegraphic and telephone service to all points,—and more—a-comin'. There are two daily passenger trains each way between New York and Honolulu, and five each way daily between the city and Cincinnati over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and four daily trains each way over the L. and N. to and from all points in Central Kentucky—so if you don't like the old town after a fair trial there are ample facilities to get away. There are Lodges of all sorts: Masons and Oddfellows, big fellows and little fellows, Redmen, Knights of Pythias, P. O. S. A., Junior Order, McCabees, Eagles, Buffaloes, Elks, Knights of St. John, Grand Army Boys, Confederate Veterans, Sons of Rest, with two members of the Legislature—and if you want any others we'll get 'em. We have two daily newspapers, a free public library with accomplished lady librarians,—and as a further means of disseminating news there are innumerable sewing circles and card clubs among the Church members. These embrace a few of Maysville's present attractions; others will be added during the current summer, notably Home-Coming Week, the Fourth of July and brick streets. If you like the prospect, Come and live with us; we will do you good—say the "do" softly, please!

Now, just watch Maysville grow!

A WEEKLY trade review shows that on June 1st prices of commodities reached their highest mark in twenty years. This is all right for the fellow who raises the stuff—the farmer; but it's pretty tough on us poor devils who have to "raise the stuff" to pay for it. However, when the Democrats get control of Congress, and Mr. BRYAN moves into the White House, and all the Republican Postmasters have to go to work, and the dad-gashed Robber Tariff is ripped up the back, we uns can hire workmen and buy beans and things at pretty much our own figures.

WITH her old-fashioned water-works breaking down every few days, it's little wonder that suits are being filed to prevent the closing of Cincinnati's beer saloons at midnight.

DURING the water famine in Cincinnati the Breweries responded nobly. They were operated by Business Men, while the Political Ward Heelers were in charge of the Water-works.

JUST now Cincinnati is experiencing one of the magnificent advantages of Municipal Ownership. Her new Democratic Reform Administration displaced a Hydraulic Engineer and put a Watchmaker and Spectacle Mender in charge of her Water-works, with the result that most of the city was without a drop of water for several days. The managers of a private corporation would not have done a thing like that.

THE Washington Standard says Senator FORAKER's speech, delivered just prior to casting his vote against the rate bill, rings true to conviction, courage, honesty—qualities that distinguish Ohio's senior Senator in a high degree. It is indeed a pleasure to read such high-minded utterances. Mr. FORAKER is not built on the plan that enables a man to "crook the pregnant hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning." Possibly he has put aside the highest ambition which an American statesman may cherish. But he can never lose the consciousness that he yet retains a priceless treasure—his self-respect.

There are three Senators who declared that they did not like crow and would not eat it. And they did not. Senators FORAKER, MORGAN and PETTUS have retained their self-respect, and have not lost the esteem of men who admire manhood and courage. When the inefficiency of the nostrum concocted to dose the people shall be demonstrated, this little band of Senators will be remembered with general and genuine admiration.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation, and was compelled to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I left Cincinnati last May and am well again. During the nine years before I used Colgate's I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of the suffering humanity."

GOT HIS LICENSE

But He Had to Do Some Planning Before-Hand

Hi, there, Madison! It was a neat trick and no kick is coming! Eh, old boy?

Mr. Allen, the young man who engineered the coup d'état, is certainly a genius and a resourceful fellow in an emergency.

If he lives long enough he is likely to acquire fame and distinction, for he undoubtedly has a gray matter from which he can evolve great things.

Friday night of last week there arrived in the city a quartette of rustics—at least, some of Maysville's fashion plates might have termed them such—who registered at the Kentucky Hotel.

The party consisted of Mr. Jesse L. Allen and Miss Mary L. Adams, main spokes in the wheel of fortune about to give a turn, accompanied by Mr. Herman Courtney and Miss Bessie Allen, all hailing from Fleming county.

They came on important business that required immediate attention, and notwithstanding it was a late hour the two gentlemen started in quest of the County Clerk, and in his stead rounded up Deputy County Clerk Lindsay, always polite and accommodating, and especially so since becoming a benedict.

After being informed of the wishes of the young man, Mr. Lindsay gathered up the necessary documents and accompanied the trio to the Hotel in order to size up and question in person the bride-to-be.

Now here is where the fine Italian hand of the groom-to-be comes in play to the Queen's taste, and which results in the hoodwinking of the Deputy Clerk.

The young lady in question is scarce 16.

Miss Allen, sister of the young Napoleon, is 22.

To switch the one for t'other in the interview was the play, on the success of which depended the future happiness of two fond, loving hearts.

Of course, the sister had evidently been trained as to the part she was to assume in the drama of real life about to be enacted.

Bidding Mr. Lindsay be seated, the young man disappeared into another room and in a few minutes reappeared with a blushing and buxom young lady clinging to his arm and presented her as the one about to assume the vows of wifehood.

Mr. Lindsay, in a dignified and clerical manner, though more or less embarrassed, proceeded with his interrogation—

"You are of legal age?"

"Yes, sir, 22." She looked it, and evidently told the truth.

"Do the parents consent to this marriage?"

"No, sir; it is an elopement."

Having taking all necessary precautions as is required by law, Mr. Lindsay filled out the marriage license and passing the coveted paper to the groom, received his fee and took his departure.

The retreating footsteps of the officer had hardly died away in the distance when a messenger was sent post haste in search of a Minister and on his arrival the real article was trotted out and it required but a few minutes to make

"Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts that beat as one."

The bride is a graceful and pretty young lady, and does not look a day over 16; they say she really is only 15.

The cigars are on you, Mad, for a fact.

Buy a home before Home-Coming week. I have some good ones for sale. JOHN DULEY.

James Poor of Aberdeen had a finger badly lacerated while running a stave saw at the mill of W. B. Mathews & Co. yesterday afternoon.

CHARMING MUSIC

Recital Last Evening By Pupils of Miss Emma Nolin

One of the most enjoyable recitals of the season was that of Miss Emma Nolin, given last evening at the residence of Mr. W. L. Jackson in East Second street, about fifty patrons and friends being present.

"My Old Kentucky Home" by Miss Bertie Sweet was well received. A song and recitation by six little folks and the recitation "At Grigsby's Station" by Miss Jessie Yancey were greatly enjoyed. "Meditation" by Mrs. Whittington and "The Midnight Patrol" by Miss Bertha Jackson were rendered in a very capable manner. Duets by Misses Nolin and Sweet, Miss Nolin and Mr. Hall and Miss Sweet and Mr. Hall were some of the enjoyable features of the evening.

Miss Lula Dersch added to the delightful program by her vocal solos.

The manner in which the scholars acquitted themselves reflected much credit on their teacher.

Have you a farm or house you want to sell? If so, let me dispose of it for you. JOHN DULEY.

Will you enjoy the Home-Coming next week? Have you given anything to help pay the expenses?

I have some fine farms for sale that have been listed with me in the last few days. Do you want one? JOHN DULEY.

Mr. Charles H. Frank yesterday celebrated his 70th birthday anniversary. He is the youngest three-score-and-ten boy in the town. May 'Lasses have many more returns of the day and enjoy his remaining days to the fullest.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN.

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs.
When housework is torture.
When night brings no rest nor sleep.
When urinary disorders set in.
Women's lot is a weary one.

There is a way to escape these woes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Maysville. This is one Maysville woman's testimony. Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 22 East Fourth street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"The prompt and thorough action of Doan's Kidney Pills should recommend them to everyone suffering from backache or kidney troubles. I have known the value of this remedy for several years. Its use in my case proved to me that it is a reliable kidney cure and cannot be excelled for backache or weakness of the kidneys. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills before and I should advise every sufferer to get a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore and try them."

Beautiful Homes

There has been an awakening among the citizens of Maysville during the past three years with reference to beautifying and making attractive our dwelling places. Heretofore too little importance has been attached to the matter of making our residences both attractive and comfortable. Take a drive, if you please, or streetcar ride through our city and observe the number of houses which are being painted and otherwise improved and contrast the present with the condition of affairs five years ago, and you will see that there is a marked improvement.

Are you the owner of one of these beautiful and comfortable homes? Is your wife confronted with the probability of having to move on 30 days notice? Have you provided a habitation which you consider to be as permanent as any earthly dwelling place can be? The recollections of home will do much to influence the future life of your children. Are you doing your full duty to your family when you continue to rent, when it would be much more economical and far more pleasant for you to own the residence you occupy? I have some delightful places in the central part of the city which I can sell you at reasonable prices. I have some splendid property in the Fifth and Sixth Wards where you can have a nice yard and garden, with sunshine and the most healthful and delightful surroundings, which I can sell you at astonishingly low prices. Delay no longer attending to this important matter.

Yours very truly,

John Duley,

Correspondence

BOGGS.

Miss Ethel McNutt has returned from Quick's Run.

Mr. Warder Cooper moved to Maysville this week.

Mrs. Lucretia Crawford is now occupying her new residence.

If vegetation is not luxuriant now it is not the fault of the weather here.

The residence of R. J. Boggs has been newly painted, and the residence of J. C. Boyd has a new tin roof.

Mrs. H. P. Emmons returned Saturday to her home in Hamilton, O., accompanied by her brother, F. P. Tully, and his two children, Marie and Harry.

It seems as if some Churches have converted Children's Day into Children's Night, when all good children should be in bed. It is a wonder that their Sunday schools are not held at night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Patterson of Lawrence, Kansas, formerly of these parts, will arrive here on a visit to relatives, after seeing the sights this week in Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson think a great deal of the Sunflower State, as well as California, where they spent the winter, but these, no doubt, will fade into insignificance when they visit Old Kentucky with its majestic hills, its beautiful bluegrass section, its enterprising towns and its hustling, bustling, progressive, magnificent, hospitable, incomparable metropolis—Louisville.

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual Children's Day picnic at Ebenezer Presbyterian Church next Saturday, June 16th, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Every family is expected to bring a basket laden with palatable dainties, which is an important feature of a picnic, but which never fails here. A confectionery on the grounds will furnish icecream, lemonade, candies and other good things at low prices. An interesting program has been prepared, consisting of children's exercises, good music, good speaking, etc.

SPRINGDALE.

Master Marshall Sylvia visited relatives at Mayville Sunday.

Miss Katherine Hendrickson of Tollesboro was a charming caller on friends here Monday.

Mr. C. C. Dugman left Monday for Berea to attend the annual State Encampment of the G. A. R.

The children's exercises at Bethany Sunday night were interesting and a large crowd was in attendance.

The Sunday-school celebration and Home-Coming at Ebenezer, Lewis county, on Saturday, June 16th, will be well attended from this place.

The celebration of Home-Coming at Beechwood, Maysville, June 20th, is a much discussed topic among the ladies, as an old-fashioned barbecue in acity is something out of the ordinary.

Mrs. Nannie Emmons returned to her home at Hamilton, O., Saturday last. She was accompanied by her brother, Mr. F. P. Tully, and children, who will be her guests for a few weeks.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Day, near Orangeburg, was the scene of a delightful family reunion on Thursday last. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tully of Lewis county, Mrs. Nannie E. Emmons of Hamilton, Ohio, Mr. Floyd P. Tully and two children, little Miss Maris and Master Harry of Manchester, and W. H. Tully of Sioux City, Iowa, and others.

Get ready for Home-Coming by giving your share to help pay the expenses.

Advertised Letters

Below is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Maysville (Ky.) Postoffice for the week ending June 13th, 1906:

Carpenter, Mrs. Amanda Pollitt, W. H. Coffey, C. T. Hayes, Mrs. John McClellan, Albert Payne, James.

One cent due on each of above.

Persons calling for these letters will please say that they are advertised.

CLARENCE MATHEWS, Postmaster.
